NAME DENGLE BD. PRESIDENT; SCOTT RESIGNS

Kenneth R. Dengler, York St. merchant, was renamed president of the Gettysburg Recreation Board at its meeting Monday evening in its office in the Gettysburg Junior High School. Renamed as secretary was Mrs. G. Donald Wickerham.

The board at the same time accepted with regret the resignation of E. Donald Scott, county commissioner, as a member of the board. In his letter of resignation, Mr. Scott said he had enjoyed working as a member of the board but that he felt he should "curtail some activities."

The board noted that after February 1 applications will be received from those who wish to serve as playground instructors during the summer.

NEW DIRECTOR SOON

New Recreation Director Ray Thompson will begin his duties Monday, Secretary Mrs. Wickerham reported to the board. Acting Recreation Director John Maloney said he will spend several days in assisting the new director in his tasks. At the direction of the board, Maloney will set up this week if possible a program on Saturday afternoons for use of a gymnasium by junior high school boys for basketball. The action came after Maloney reported a large number of boys were seeking use of a gym on Saturdays for such activities as basketball shooting, pickup basketball games, etc.

Maloney announced that meeting will be held Thursday evening at 8 o'clock at the recreation office for men interested in forming an adult volleyball league and women wishing to take part.

SWOPE TELLS CIVIC COUNCIL BATTLE PLANS

Atty. Donald M. Swope, a member of the Pennsylvania Commission arranging the observance of the 100th anniversary of the Battle of Gettysburg, told members of the Women's Civic Council at a meeting in the Moose home Monday evening that a "commemoration" of the battle was being planned and not a "celebration" of it.

He said Sunday, June 30, would be planned by the Gettysburg Fire Company and would be a religious and dedicatory program. "July 1 will be a day of pageantry and music, centering at the Eternal Light Peace Memorial," he said, "and we hope to have the governor present and several members of his cabinet."

"The major event of July will be a mammoth parade with historical emphasis and stressing our national strength."

"On July 3, the turning point of the Civil War, there will be some kind of pageantry concerning the repulse of Pickett's Charge. There will be no reenactment but whatever is done will be in that area on the battlefield, with the emphasis on reunion rather than conflict."

PRESIDENT INVITED

He stated that an invitation had been sent to President Kennedy to come here on July 4. In answer to many questions presented by the women, he said that plans are being made for vignettes at various spots during the mornings and it is expected that there will be dedication of some of the monuments on the battlefield. He paid high tribute to the cooperation being given by the National Park Service, which is planning to put up an amphitheater on the field. Louis Simons is executive secretary of the commission and the office is in the Western Maryland station building, Carlisle St.

Mrs. Robert C. Harpster, president, presided at the business meeting which preceded the talk. Mrs. Guyon E. Buehler, past president, installed Mrs. Harpster for her second term as president and Mrs. Edith Bushman for her second term as vice president. Mrs. Ralph Fisel was installed as secretary - treasurer, replacing Mrs. Pearl Wiser whose term had expired. Mrs. Buehler expressed appreciation of the council to Mrs. Wiser for her consistent

Need Miniature Cape Canaveral In Space Soon

NEW YORK (AP) — By 1970, the United States will need a miniature Cape Canaveral in space — an orbiting service station to launch and repair rockets, a space agency planner said today.

When it isn't acting as a space hangar and launch base, the station — 300 feet long and 33 feet in diameter — could double as a scientific laboratory for exploring the space environment.

First a giant Saturn C5 rocket would put a 98-foot section into orbit for the scientific laboratory. Staff members would reach the laboratory in Apollo space buses, patterned after the vehicle that is to land the first American on the moon.

About 15 men would man this first section, Von Tiesenhansen told the annual meeting of the Institute of Aerospace Sciences.

Another Saturn rocket would carry up the second section — a space station with a telescoping hangar that could extend to cover some of the smaller rockets.

This section would rendezvous with the orbiting laboratory and hook on.

COMMITTEES OF KIWANIS ARE ASSIGNED

Various committee assignments were announced by President Charles W. Pentz Monday evening as he presided at his first meeting of the Gettysburg Kiwanis Club. The dinner session was held at the Lamp Post Tea Room.

President Pentz distributed circulars listing proposed club activities, committee assignments for the year and a copy of the budget the club has approved for this year.

President Pentz also announced that a committee consisting of Harry W. Redding, chairman, Dr. George J. Wolfe and H. Wayne Cluck was appointed to select club delegates and alternates for the Kiwanis International convention to be held from June 30 to July 4 in Atlantic City.

PLAN ANNIVERSARY

A special committee was appointed to commemorate the eighth anniversary of the local club. This committee is headed by William Ditzler with the following members: Clyde Markle, John Kershaw, Herbert Hamme, William Swisher, Paul Estep and Warren R. Appgar.

William Ditzler, chairman of the special centennial committee, said numerous meetings will be held.

Pleads Guilty To Charges; Is Jailed

Charles R. Fowler, 28, 135 Bedford Ave., Monday evening pleaded guilty before Justice of the Peace Robert P. Snyder on charges of contributing to the delinquency and corrupting the morals of a female minor. He was placed in jail in default of $1,000 bail.

State police said Fowler and Archie E. Monn, 199, Fayetteville R. 2, left here December 27 with two teen-aged girls and went to "Florida and around." Monn and one of the girls returned home January 5. Monn was arrested January 8 and charged before Justice Snyder with contributing to the delinquency of a minor, corrupting the morals of a minor and a morals charge. He was released from jail January 9 on $2,500 bail. Fowler and the other girl returned here Saturday.

COACH CITES BENEFITS OF WRESTLING

Frank "Sprig" Gardner, new wrestling coach at Gettysburg College, praised his current team as "hard working" and said that "by next year I suspect we will be rather strong" in a talk before Rotary Monday night at its meeting in the YWCA.

Gardner observed that many of the members of this year's team which won its first three matches will be back next year. Because the members have "worked so hard," Gardner said he will enter the team in Middle Atlantic competition "even though we're not ready. But it will be good experience."

A former Gettysburg resident who had success as a wrestling coach in Long Island and elsewhere before becoming a coach here, Gardner said, "I never wrestled in college, but since then I have become sold on wrestling. It is the only sport that gives everybody a chance. The 120 pounder fights another 120 pounder. No other sport provides such even matching. Wrestling has much to teach of self reliance. In wrestling it is up to you, there is no team to come to your assistance. You can't pass the buck. You earn your own way and there can be no excuses. The coach doesn't determine who wrestles with the team. The members wrestle among themselves to decide who shall represent the squad in the matches. It is hard work, the toughest sport there is, but you alone make it or you fail."

LIONS TOLD ABOUT 75TH ANNIVERSARY

The federal commission for the observance of the 75th anniversary of the Battle of Gettysburg set a precedent by returning to Congress an unspent approximate $200,000 in federal funds, the Gettysburg Lions were told Monday evening.

Paul L. Roy, editor of The Gettysburg Times who was executive secretary of the 75th anniversary commission, told the clubmen Congress appropriated $1,186,000 for the anniversary observance in 1938 and the last re-union of the Blue and Gray. Pennsylvania appropriated $95,000 as its share of the expenses, he said.

Mr. Roy spoke in connection with the showing of two films of the 75th anniversary celebration here on the battle dates in 1938. The films were made 25 years ago by Joseph Hoffman and Dr. R. D. Wickerham. Hoffman's film and part of the Wickerham reel were in color.

ADD NEW MEMBER

In answer to questions, Mr. Roy said there were 1,845 veterans here from every state except Wyoming in 1938 while 3,185 U.S. Army officers and men were brought here for three weeks to assist in and take part in the observance which was highlighted by a parade and the dedication of the Eternal Light Peace Memorial by President Franklin D. Roosevelt.

3 Fire Companies Called Overnight

Three Adams county fire companies were summoned to fires Monday night.

At 6:15 o'clock Arendtsville firemen were summoned to a fire at the home of Antonio Mogica. No damage was reported to the Quick Call center here.

At 6:25 o'clock Fairfield firemen were summoned to a blaze in the tool shed at the quarry near Fairfield.

At 8 o'clock Aspers firemen were summoned to the barn at the property of Walter Thomas. They found the barn falling down, and stood by to prevent spread of the blaze to any other buildings.

TO AID TAXPAYERS

Internal Revenue Service agents will be at the Gettysburg Post Office every Monday from February 4 until April 15 to assist county residents in making out their income tax returns. They will be available each Monday from 9 a.m. until 5 p.m.

COUPLE LICENSED

A marriage license was issued today at the courthouse to Anthony Francis Funk, son of Mr. and Mrs. Leo J. Funk, New Oxford R. 1, and Darlene Marie Shorb, daughter of Mrs. Mary P. O'Donnell, 515 E. Middle St., Hanover.

Sweeping Legislation Is Proposed By Scranton As 'Beginning Great Venture'

HARRISBURG (AP) — Gov. Scranton today proposed a sweeping legislative program to the 1963 General Assembly that he said marks the "beginning of a great adventure."

His proposals covered the full range of governmental affairs. Major recommendations included:

—Holding of a referendum of the people to decide whether a constitutional convention should be held to rewrite the state's 88-year-old basic law.

4 NEW AGENCIES

—Establishment of at least four new governmental agencies, including a separate Department of Mental Health, a Council of Human Services, a Department of Community Development, and a Commission of Professional Affairs.

—Expanded provisions for medical care for the aged under the Kerr-Mills Law, including increased limits on assets, elimination of state liens against property to cover medical bills, and determination of state aid eligibility in advance.

—A uniform Civil Service act covering virtually the entire state government.

BACKS PROJECT 70

—Sweeping reform of the state's bituminous mining laws, including transfer of authority over strip mine law regulation from the Mines Department to the Forests and Waters Department.

—Approval of Project 70, a long range, bond-financed program for park development.

—Legislative reapportionment.

—Philadelphia city-county consolidation.

PLANS MOVE LATER

The governor deferred detailed outlines of his proposals for finance, industrial development and education. He said he would cover those items in special messages to the legislature later.

However, he recommended an immediate deficiency appropriation by the legislature of $4 million to the Pennsylvania Industrial Development Authority (PIDA) "in order that there shall not be the slightest slowdown of the essential activities of this agency."

He indicated that $4 million in statements last week that he found the state would face a $32 million deficit at the end of the current fiscal year June 30.

ASKS MORATORIUM

Although he deferred specific comment on education, he urged the legislature to enact a one-year moratorium on the effective date of the controversial School District Reorganization Act of 1961 because "considerable confusion exists in the commonwealth over application of the act." Such legislation is presently in committee in both the House and Senate.

Scranton also recommended that the legislature consider enactment of a state Council of Higher Education and one for basic education.

"Each would exercise primary

Leader In Invasion Of Cuba Says Brigade Was Promised Full Air Cover

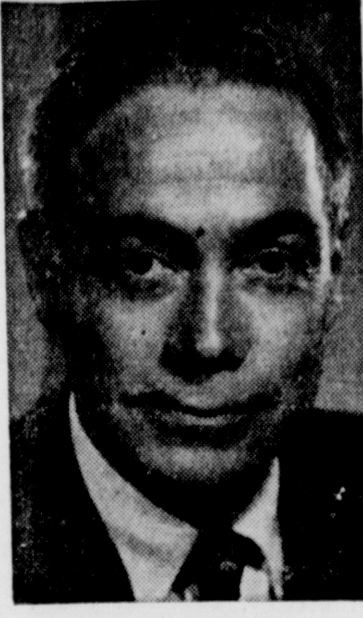

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—A leader in the exile organization that mounted the 1961 Cuban invasion insists that the anti-Castro brigade was promised full air cover.

The exile leader, Antonio de Varona of the Cuban Revolutionary Council, said he was obliged to "break silence" because of Atty. Gen. Robert F. Kennedy's statement Monday that no United States air cover ever was planned.

The attorney general said President Kennedy couldn't have issued last-minute orders canceling air cover, as many administration critics have maintained, because there were never any plans for the United States to provide air support.

SOLON TAKES ISSUE

Sen. Barry Goldwater, R-Ariz., also took issue with the attorney general in Washington. Goldwater said he talked with the President just after the invasion and "I certainly got the impression then that an air cover had been part of the original invasion plans."

NAME HOUCK TREASURER OF BOARD OF LIM

David C. Houck, Arendtsville, was elected treasurer of the West Pennsylvania Conference Lutheran Inner Mission at the bimonthly meeting of the board of directors Monday night at St. John's Lutheran Church, Littlestown.

Dr. Norman D. Keefer, Mechanicsburg, who had served the organization as treasurer for nearly six years, resigned from the office. Dr. Keefer continues as a member of the board. The resignation was accepted by the board which expressed appreciation to Dr. Keefer's "faithful, untiring and devoted service."

The Rev. Dr. Paul L. Reaser, Gettysburg, president of the board, presided at the meeting. Devotions were led by the host pastor, the Rev. W. C. Karns. Reports of committee activities were presented. The Rev. Robert O. Whitehead, Fayetteville, public relations chairman, announced plans for printing a bulletin to depict the total service program of the LIM, its organizational features and its projected developments.

COMMITTEES REPORT

The board heard a progress report from the Rev. Maynard S. Barnhart, Jr., Arendtsville, chairman of the committee planning for the construction of the Lutheran Home in this area.

Mrs. Louise D. Bream, executive director, announced the schedule for the social welfare services available in the three districts, Carlisle, Chambersburg and Gettysburg. Mrs. Bonnie D. Wysocki, full-time caseworker, will maintain office hours and visiting schedule as follows: Monday all day and Tuesday afternoon, LIM office, Gettysburg; Thursday all day in Carlisle district with office hours 9:45 a.m. to 12:30 p.m. at St. Paul's Lutheran Church; Friday all day in the Chambersburg district with office hours 9:45 a.m. to 12:30 p.m. in the office at First Lutheran Church. Mrs. Bream will be in the Carlisle and Chambersburg areas on alternate Wednesdays.

The director reported also concerning the 42 families and individuals on the casework role as of January 1, involving 108 persons. A study of all services to families and individuals including adoption, aid to older persons

PLAN MEETING ON FEDERAL AID EFFORTS HERE

Gettysburg may gain greatly as a result of federal matching funds now available for construction.

Borough Councilman Robert McCoy, meeting Monday evening with the recreation board at its office in the junior high school, gave a preliminary outline on the findings of a special council committee which visited Philadelphia recently to determine the availability of federal matching funds and said that Gettysburg could qualify for the aid if it moves quickly enough.

A meeting of the members of the borough council, recreation board and planning committee will be held Wednesday evening at 7 o'clock at the engine house where the officials will hear more about the available aid and begin at least preliminary discussions on what the town needs and can afford with the federal government to pay half the cost.

SET UP PRIORITIES

McCoy said his committee met in Philadelphia with Fred Wampler of the Housing Finance Agency and learned that Gettysburg could apparently easily qualify for the aid, but that action will have to be taken within the next few months. Processing of the application takes about three months, McCoy said and he and his committee were told, and it is hoped that the processing may be complete by July — if that town seeks the federal funds.

According to the councilman, federal aid could be provided for such things as renovation of the local fire engine house, construction of streets, construction of a community center, construction of a swimming pool for recreation, etc. Priorities are given in the processing of applications in accordance with the federal government's opinion of the importance of the project. According to the information given at Philadelphia renovation of the fire house, as an example, would have higher priority than a swimming pool for recreation.

Wednesday evening's meeting will be mostly explanatory with the different groups discussing ideas that may be pursued, with council to make a final decision eventually on what, if any, plans might be adopted.

UP TO HALF MILLION

McCoy said Wampler told the committee that Gettysburg could probably obtain up to $500,000 in

Driver Is Jailed By Two Justices

Claude Bennet Walsh, 24, Baltimore, was placed in the Adams County jail Monday evening at 7:45 o'clock charged by state police before two county justices of the peace with motor code violations.

He was sentenced to five days in jail in default of $15 fine and costs on a charge of following too closely brought before Justice of the Peace Claude Straley, New Oxford, and was sentenced to ten days in jail in default of $30 fine and costs on a charge of reckless driving before Justice of the Peace Anna Thompson, E. Middle St.

BOARD HONORS REV. HELD AT DINNER HERE

The Rev. Charles E. Held, a former board chairman, was guest of honor at a dinner meeting held Monday evening at the Lamp Post Tea Room by members of the Adams County Board of Assistance.

The Rev. Mr. Held on December 31 completed three consecutive three-year terms as a board member, the limit under state law.

Evangelist M. Appier, the new board chairman, paid tribute to the Rev. Mr. Held for his years of service. In 1957 he served as vice chairman and from 1957 to 1960 was board chairman. The former board member was presented with a key chain attached to a silver dollar minted in the year of the recipient's birth.

REIMBURSEMENTS UP

The board's executive director, Mrs. Verna Myers, told board members that in 1962 the Commonwealth received $24,140.70 in reimbursements from former relief recipients, chiefly from their estates. The state also received $1,126.43 from recipients who returned assistance payments to which they were not entitled. The total amount of reimbursements was $7,947.49 more than for 1961.

Greetings were read from the new state Secretary of Public Welfare Arlin M. Adams, who has succeeded Mrs. Ruth Grigg Horting.

Board members attending in addition to Mr. Appier included Mrs. Donald A. Noel, Mrs. Joseph H. Riley, Clyde L. Kennedy and Allen S. Stauffer. The board's next meeting will be held February 20. The Rev. Mr. Held's place on the board has been filled by the appointment of the Rev. John Z. Martin, New Oxford.

Plan 2nd Session Of Mission School

The guest speaker for the Wednesday evening session of the annual school of missions at the First Baptist Church here will be Mrs. Berwyn Russell, new member of the staff of the Adams County Public Library. The session will be held at the church at 7:30 p.m.

The mission sessions are being held each Wednesday evening for six weeks, beginning last Wednesday when there was an attendance of 46. The school will close February 27 when Dr. Alfred Murray, pastor of the Chambersburg Baptist Church, will show a film on the American Indian at Bacone College and Murrow Home in Muskogee, Okla., where he formerly worked.

The theme for the school of missions is "The Church's Mission and Persons of Special Need." There are classes for each age group including the nursery age. The community needs and ways of helping persons with special needs are being studied and local persons have been invited to speak on areas of need in this community. The sessions are open to the public.

TOUGH TRAFFIC PLAN FAILS TO JUSTIFY COST, SAYS PROBERS

HARRISBURG (AP)—The tough traffic safety program of the last two Democratic state administrations was downgraded Monday by the legislature's research agency.

The Joint State Government Commission submitted to the House and Senate a report that stated in conclusion:

"The introduction of periodic physical re-examination of drivers, taken in conjunction with a drastic suspension policy, the introduction of radar and the legalization of chemical tests (for drunken driving suspects) have not changed the trend of fatal and personal injury accident rates."

The tone of the report, made by a 16-member task force headed by Rep. J. Dean Polen, D. Washington, and Sen. Jon T. Van Sant, R-Lehigh, came as no surprise.

HAD LONG FEUD
The legislature long has been feuding with Traffic Safety Commissioner O. D. Shipley, who was appointed by former Gov. Leader in 1955.

The report dealt principally with the physical re-examination program adopted in 1960 by the Lawrence administration, but it also commented that the traffic safety measures recommended by the National Safety Council "are applied in Pennsylvania with extreme severity."

Against the safety council's standard of 50 suspensions per 10,000 drivers, this state suspended 224 drivers out of every 10,000, the task force reported.

It noted that the physical re-examination program was not among the national council's recommendations and concluded that the cost does not support the expense of the program.

The task force said it studied the first 196,000 Pennsylvania drivers to take re-examinations 369 had been rejected.

Their accident record was 3 per cent, the group said, as against a 6 per cent record for all Pennsylvania drivers and none of the 369 had been involved in a fatal accident over the last decade.

The task force estimated that it cost $1.4 million to examine these drivers whereas their potential for property damage for the remainder of their lives was approximately $198,000.

The task force reported that Pennsylvania's death rate has been consistently lower than the national rate since 1950 and, further, that its pattern of death rates has been similar to the national pattern, that is, that this state's rate went down when the national rate went down, and increased when the national rate increased.

Father In Hospital; Paralytic Helpless

MANHATTAN BEACH, Calif. (AP)—A teen-age boy paralyzed from the waist down lay helpless in his home for two days while his father, critically injured in a traffic accident, was unconscious in a hospital.

Then a neighbor heard of Bill Weber Sr.'s auto collision and asked police to check the son's condition.

They found Bill Jr., 18, cold, hungry and bewildered. He became a paraplegic two years ago when injured in a water skiing accident. Neighbors and police pitched in to help him. An officer's wife cooked him dinner. Others brought clothes. Some offered to stay with him until his father recovered. The boy's mother died six years ago.

"It was almost worth all this to find out I have so many friends," he said Monday.

ON 3 COMMITTEES

Assemblyman Harry D. Ridinger, Seminary Ave., has been appointed to three committees in the state House of Representatives, he learned Monday. The assignments are to the committee on banking and savings and loan associations, fisheries and insurance.

SECURE LICENSES

Marriage licenses have been issued in Westminster to Archie E. Menn, Fayetteville R. 2, and Dorothy J. Pittenturf, R. 3; John William Young Jr., Keymar R. 1, Md., and Violet Louise Kefauver, Taneytown.

CAR DAMAGES BRIDGE

Daniel E. Weikert, Gettysburg R. 3, reported to borough police Monday afternoon at 4:45 that as he was driving west in the alley near the Avenue Diner his car skidded on ice and struck a bridge over Winebrenner's Run, causing $20 damage to the car and bending and breaking some of the iron railing of the bridge.

CANCEL TRIP TO INDIA

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Kennedy's three sisters have called off a trip to India and Pakistan.

A spokesman for Eunice Shriver, wife of Peace Corps Director Sargent Shriver, said the trip had depended on whether all three could get away at the same time, and it didn't work out.

The Rev. Glenn T. Hafer, chairman of the Social Services committee, announced meeting dates for his committee with two sub-committees being set up, one to review the services to families and children and the other concerned primarily with services to older persons in their own homes or in a private family care home. The former will meet on January 30 at 7:30 p.m. and the latter on February 20 at 2 p.m. both in the LIM office in Gettysburg.

The appointment of Mrs. Rex S. MacCaffray, Boiling Springs; Ralph Lightner, Lysville, and Merle Hafner, Marion, as additional members to the social services committee was approved.

NEW SALARY SCALE
The finance committee, Dr. Edward Turnbach, Shippensburg, chairman, reported the presentation of the 1964 budget to Central Pennsylvania Synod for approval. Sister Betty Amstutz, representing the synod as its associate director of social ministry, was present and spoke to the board briefly concerning the efforts and cooperation necessary in the reorganization of the total social ministry program throughout the synod.

David Coover and Boyd Eichman, Mechanicsburg, were named to audit the treasurer's books. The board also approved a new salary code presented by the personnel committee, Mr. Houck, chairman, and approved the payment of the executive director's membership in the Pennsylvania Citizens' Council.

Board members present were: Dr. Reaser, Pastor Barnhart, Pastor Hafer, Pastor Whitehead, Dr. Norman Keffer; Mr. Houck; Emanuel Gunnet, McKnightstown; John Small, Fayetteville; Melvin Rudy, Chambersburg; Mrs. Alvin Groft, Littlestown; Sister Betty Amstutz and Mrs. Bream. The Tuck-a-batch class of St. John's Church served refreshments to the board. The next meeting is scheduled for March 18 at St. James Lutheran Parish House, Gettysburg.

French And W. Germany Sign Treaty

PARIS (AP)—West German Chancellor Konrad Adenauer and French President Charles de Gaulle today signed a comprehensive treaty of cooperation between Germany and France, laying to rest centuries of conflict.

The chancellor, 87, who regards French-German reconciliation as the crowning achievement of his waning political career, signed for his country, followed by Foreign Minister Gerhard Schroeder. De Gaulle, who led Free French forces from British exile in the Allied victory over Nazi Germany in World War II, signed for France. He was followed by Premier Georges Pompidou and Foreign Minister Maurice Couve de Murville.

The statesmen also signed an accompanying joint declaration of principles, calling for a lasting friendship between the two nations which have so frequently clashed.

The treaty calls for regular periodic consultation between the chiefs of state or government, two ministers and officials of the two governments to coordinate policy in the domains of diplomacy, defense, education and culture.

MRS. COLE WELCOMED

Mrs. Richard M. Cole was welcomed as the representative from the Ladies' Auxiliary of the Gettysburg Fire Company, replacing Miss Jane Stallsmith, and Mrs. Arthur Davies was presented as the new representative from the Ladies of the GAR, Circle No. 227, replacing Mrs. Maybelle McKenrick. Mrs. Wiser will represent the American Legion Auxiliary and Mrs. Sara Keffer will represent the Adams County Fish and Game Auxiliary.

Mrs. Harpster reported on the January meeting of the borough council and the suggested plans for youth recreation. The auditing committee, comprising Mrs. Virginia Lauver, Mrs. Dorothy Pinko and Mrs. Paul Frazer, reported and were discharged.

CHAIRMAN APPOINTED

Mrs. Harpster appointed the following committee chairmen for the year: Mrs. Wiser, membership; Mrs. Buehler, public relations; Mrs. Pinko, hostesses; Mrs. Cole, borough council attendance.

The president appointed Mrs. Wiser to serve on the executive board; the council elected Mrs. Pinko as their representative, and at a board meeting held after the meeting Mrs. Keffer was elected as their member. These three members with the three officers and Mrs. Buehler as past president comprise the executive board. The board will meet February 4 to formulate a program for the year. They expect to cooperate in some manner with the anniversary celebration.

Following the meeting refreshments were served by Mrs. Pinko and Mrs. Keffer, assisted by Mrs. Lauver.

PASTORS PLAN
GOOD FRIDAY'S
UNION SERVICE

The annual Good Friday Three Hours Devotion and other coming activities of the Littlestown Ministerium were planned at the bi-monthly meeting Monday morning in St. Paul's Lutheran Church.

The Good Friday devotions on April 12 will be held in Centenary Methodist Church from 12 o'clock noon to 3 p.m. The devotions will be selected by the Rev. William R. Jones, host church pastor, and the public is invited to attend any part or all of the services. "The Seven Last Words of Christ From the Cross" will be the theme of the devotions, which will be divided into seven parts.

The schedule of those ministers presiding follows: First word, the Rev. Mr. Jones; second word, the Rev. Lawrence H. Roller, pastor of St. Paul's Church; third word, Rev. G. Howard Koons, pastor of Christ United Church of Christ; fourth, the Rev. David S. Kammerer, local retired Lutheran minister; fifth, the Rev. George Shultz Jr., pastor of St. Luke's United Church of Christ, near White Hall; sixth, the Rev. Glenn Flinchbaugh, pastor of Redeemer's United Church of Christ, and seventh word, the Rev. William C. Karns, pastor of St. John's Lutheran Church. Special music at intervals during the three hours will be in charge of Redeemer's, Centenary and St. Luke's Churches.

TO GIVE BACCALAUREATE

The meeting opened with prayer by the Rev. Mr. Kammerer, who also presented his report as secretary-treasurer. Pastor Roller, president, presided. There was a discussion on the annual Holy Week musical, Wednesday, April 10. The secretary was instructed to contact outside groups concerning the musical and report his findings at the next meeting of the ministerium.

The essay contest on the subject "What My Church Means to Me" for the Junior Class of the Littlestown High School, will be sponsored again this year by the ministerium. Essays must be from 500 to 1,000 words in length and can not be typewritten but must be written in the student's own penmanship. Prizes will be given for those entries judged best by the Rev. Messrs. Shultz, Kammerer and Flinchbaugh.

The Rev. Mr. Koons will deliver the annual baccalaureate sermon at his service at the local high school in the spring. The ministers will be in charge of offering the opening prayer at the monthly meetings of the Littlestown Jointure Parent-Teacher Association. The following schedule was arranged: February 19, the Rev. Mr. Flinchbaugh; March 19, the Rev. Mr. Karns; April 16, the Rev. Mr. Jones.

DISCUSS '64 PLANS

There was a discussion on the 1964 preaching mission. Appreciation was expressed to the Rev. and Mrs. Roller, who were hosts to the 1963 preaching mission speaker, the Rev. Dr. Lawrence D. Folkemer, and his wife and the members of the Ministerium and their wives for a social gathering at the conclusion of this year's services.

Pastor Roller was named to represent the Ministerial Association

YOUTH GROUPS
HEAR TEACHER

James Witt, teacher of English at the Littlestown Junior-Senior High School, was the guest speaker at a combined meeting of the Junior and Senior High Youth Fellowships of Redeemer's United Church of Christ on Sunday evening in the church social hall. Mr. Witt, who was born in Brazil, spoke on present day Cuba and the Argentine. The opening prayer was offered by William Prosperi and Neal Leister read the scripture. Refreshments were served to over 30 persons in attendance.

The youth groups will not meet next Sunday. Ronald Conover will be leader at the next meeting of the Junior Fellowship on February 3 at 6:30 p.m. The Senior Fellowship will also have a separate meeting on February 3.

The newly-elected councilmen of St. John's Lutheran Church, George W. Streivig, Walter Yingling, Gene R. Renner and Charles Sentz were installed by the pastor, the Rev. William C. Karns, during the Sunday worship service.

The film "Broken Mask" was shown by the Methodist Youth Fellowship of Centenary Church Sunday evening. A large number of persons were in attendance.

The interdenominational film had a powerful message telling of the friendship between a white and a Negro boy, which began at a Christian youth camp, runs into difficulties when the white boy brings his new friend into his church and social situation. The film won the Golden Reel Award as the "Best Religious Film of the Year."

The MYF will have a regular meeting on Sunday at 6 p.m. David and Dianne Byers will be leaders for the program on the theme "School and Christian Youth."

The Luther League of St. John's Church met on Sunday evening at the church. A film on China and Hong Kong was shown. Miss Jill Weikert, local international Christian youth exchange student to Germany last year, will be the guest speaker at the meeting at 6 p.m. on Sunday.

HARRISBURG (AP)—Robert Yablon, 54-year-old grocer found suffering from two gunshot wounds after a holdup, died today at Polyclinic Hospital.

Yablon, who resided in Susquehanna Twp., operated a store at 15th and Regina streets. Acting Police Chief C. Preston Price said the shooting occurred between 9 and 9:30 a.m. Monday.

Yablon was found on the floor by a customer. Police said a bag contained $200 was missing. Another bag containing more than $600 was overlooked.

Police said they had uncovered few clues in the case. There have been no arrests.

through no fault of their own have not learned to achieve and to work because everything was given to them. In wrestling they learn to rely on themselves.

"I am dedicated to wrestling because I feel that I owe it to the boys. A coach is a teacher just as anyone else and, if youth is given a teacher who is not dedicated, then that youth has been cheated."

Gardner explained that he teaches by drill, breaking down the various holds into component moves.

KNOW 100 MOVES

He said he believes that system works better than the coach demonstrating a hold and then having the members of the team practice the entire hold. But in the drill method, he said, "all the moves become part of the automatic reflexes of the wrestler." At the present time he said his team members have been taught "about 100 moves." Eventually they should know 300.

Speed is of the essence in wrestling, Gardner said, and "I would prefer a fast boy over a strong one, if I have to make that choice."

President Clark Smith and Vice President Robert MacAskill introduced Gardner. Dr. Richard Newsham led group singing accompanied by Dr. Kenneth Smoke at the piano. It was announced that Thomas Washburn is chairman for local participation in the Rotary district conference at Lancaster March 31.

PLAN MEETING

federal grants which would indicate that, basing its aid on the size of the town, the federal government might give an okay on plans costing up to $1,000,000.

McCoy said his committee was told that the town should make different applications for different projects; thus if council should decide, as an example, that the fire house could be renovated, streets should be built and a swimming pool constructed each would be submitted as a separate application and the federal government would possibly approve, one, two, all three, or none, depending on the situation at the time of the application concerning the then availability of federal funds and applications from other communities. Only a certain amount will be available for all of the projects to be submitted and the federal agency will have to decide priority.

If the town decides to go ahead with any projects it will have to make up two budgets for the year, McCoy said, one for operation of the town without the project being carried out, the other in case the project or projects are approved.

Discussion at the recreation board meeting included the suggestion that possibly the town might consider construction of a community center at Recreation Park which would combine fire house, borough offices, meeting rooms, police headquarters, an indoor pool and other recreation facilities.

STORM SWEEPS
FROM ROCKIES
INTO MIDWEST

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

A fresh snowstorm swept across areas from the Rockies westward into the Midwest today and a new surge of cold air spread into the East and deep into the Southland.

Subzero temperatures clung to much of the northern Midwest, with no general, immediate relief indicated in the prolonged cold wave. The new mass of arctic air which invaded the Northeast dropped temperatures below zero in northern Maine and western New York State.

Freezing weather chilled areas in northern Florida and much of the Southeast. Miami shimmered as the mercury dropped into the 40s. There were sharp drops in temperatures throughout the East.

POST WARNINGS

Blizzard warnings were posted for west and central South Dakota after snow, powered by winds of 40 m.p.h. swept into North Dakota and the lowlands of Montana. Snow fell across sections from the northern Plains, the upper Mississippi Valley and the Great Lakes region into the Ohio Valley. The amounts ranged from one to three inches.

Cold wave warnings were issued for all parts of Montana, Wyoming, Colorado, New Mexico, South Dakota, Nebraska, Kansas, Oklahoma, Iowa, Missouri and northern Texas.

The cold air from Canada spread southward east of the Continental Divide in Montana and Wyoming and covered most of the Dakotas and Nebraska.

TO SPREAD SOUTH

The arctic air was expected to spread southward across the Plains states and cover most of the nation's midsection. Temperatures were expected to drop to more than 30 below zero along the central Canadian border and to below zero in Kansas and Colorado.

Although temperatures moderated a little in the Midwest cold belt, subzero marks again were reported in the northern Plains and northern sections of the Midwest. They ranged from zero to 10 below in Minnesota, on the Canadian border.

BELOW ZERO

In western New York the mercury dropped to -10 in Sinclairville, -8 in Cassadaga and -6 in Mayville. Readings edged near the zero mark in many other northern and western sections. New York reported 12 above, the same as in Philadelphia and Boston. In Maine, it was -9 in Old Town, with readings near zero in other parts of New England.

The mercury was in the low teens in Kentucky and Tennessee, near 20 in extreme northern Georgia and freezing into northern Florida, with 29 reported in Tallahassee. It was 14 in Asheville, N.C., 30 in New Orleans and 46 in Miami.

2 BURNED IN BLAST, BLAZE

MARCUS HOOK, Pa. (AP)—Two men were burned, one critically, in an explosion and fire in a gasoline unit at the Sun Oil Co. last night and today.

The fire threatened nearby petroleum products tanks briefly before company firemen quelled it.

Crozer Hospital in Chesler said Richard Welch, 58, of Ogden, Pa., was in critical condition with burns over most of his body. A Sun Oil spokesman said Welch was working on the unit when the fire started.

The hospital said Alfred Southby, of Chesler suffered burns on the face and neck and was released after treatment.

Firemen fought the blaze for about 40 minutes. The fire was contained in the sixth, seventh and eighth levels of a 12-level, 210-foot high structure.

Observers said the fire was visible in center city Philadelphia, 15 miles north.

"We were lucky to catch it before it got to the ground and could spread," said one fireman.

A company spokesman said the fire may have been caused by an interruption and restoration of power.

Amount of damage was not immediately determined.

FORFEIT FINES

Among those recently forfeiting fines in Westminster on motor code violation charges were: Earl L. Lauer and Lillian L. Topper, both of New Oxford, $6.45, exceeding 30 miles; Girard E. Smith, McSherrystown, $2.45, exceeding 30; James R. Rosenberry, Gettysburg, $6.45, speed too great; Anthony R. Legore, Gettysburg, $6.45, improper passing.

$2.9 MILLION
FISH PROGRAM

HARRISBURG (AP)—The State Fish Commission intends to present a $2.9 million legislative program to the 1963 General Assembly.

The package includes a proposal to raise the price of fishing licenses by $2 in an attempt to raise between $1 million and $1.2 million in additional revenue.

The program was conceived Monday at the commission's annual meeting here.

Other points raised were a request for a $1.1 million general fund appropriation from the legislature and a request for $600,000 in matching public works funds.

Albert M. Day, commission executive director, said the revenue was needed to remove the commission from its "desperate" financial condition.

The commission wants to raise fishing licenses from $3.25 to $5.25 for resident and tourist fishermen and from $7.50 to $9.50 for non-resident anglers.

CENSUS SHIFT
MAY COST 2
CITIES 6 SEATS

HARRISBURG (AP)—The first reapportionment measure of the 1963 session went into the House Monday night, proposing to reduce the representation of the state's two largest cities by six members.

The proposal from Rep. James J. A. Gallagher, D-Bucks, also would reduce the total membership in the House from 210 to 209.

The Gallagher measure would take away two seats from Pittsburgh and four from Philadelphia. Philadelphia's suburban counties would pick up eight seats. Pittsburgh's suburbs would pick up the two seats it lost to maintain Allegheny County's total delegation of 28 members.

PHILLY HAS 39

Philadelphia has 39 seats and Pittsburgh 12 plus a portion of a 13th district.

Gallagher's proposal would take one seat away from each of the following counties: Armstrong, Blair, Clearfield, Crawford, Fayette, Lackawanna, Luzerne, Schuylkill and Somerset.

The following counties would pick up seats: Montgomery, 3; Delaware and Bucks, 2 each; Beaver, Chester, Franklin, Lancaster, Westmoreland, one each.

Roast turkey dinners were served to over 900 persons, members of Littlestown Aerie No. 2226, Fraternal Order of Eagles, and their lady guests, on Monday evening in the social room of the FOE home.

LIONS TOLD

It was brought out Monday evening that eight present members of the Lions club were in Gettysburg for the 50th and 75th battle anniversary observances.

President Kenneth Dengler presided at the meeting at the VFW home with 51 Lions and guests in attendance. Timothy Farrell, W. Confederate Ave., was introduced as a new member of the club.

Attorney Eugene Hartman asked club members' opinions on local proposals for meeting the recreation needs of the community's youth and young adults. Questions which he said must be answered include: Is there a need for an expanded recreation program; if there is how is it to be met; where should new facilities be erected and under whose sponsorship? He said estimates of possible expenditures for a building to house a swimming pool, cafeteria, skating rink, gymnasium and other facilities run as high as a half million dollars with federal aid possibly available.

FIFTY YEARS AGO

Mrs. Park Noel Dies: Mrs. Mary Ellen (Chapman) Noel, wife of Park Noel, died at her home, 220 West Middle Street, from acute indigestion, aged 51 years, 8 months and 7 days. Mrs. Noel had been seriously ill only since Monday though she had been subject to attacks of indigestion for some time. She leaves her husband and 5 children, Misses Effie, Minnie and Blanche Noel, John and Samuel Noel, all at home. She also leaves a brother, William Chapman, of Orrtanna and a sister, Mrs. Frank Chapman, of Waynesboro. Funeral from her late home and interment in Evergreen Cemetery.

Brief Items: Rev. Joseph Arnold will speak in St. James' prayer meeting this evening on "The Mission Field in Africa." Roy E. Zinn has sold out his store on Carlisle street to Irvin Reynolds who took possession this week.

Local people who take delight in watching the long coal trains of the Western Maryland pass through Gettysburg notice that the engines now follow each other without any intervening cars instead of in the old manner. The completion of a large number of new bridges along the line is given as the explanation.

Concrete work out-of-doors in January is not a customary sight in Gettysburg but the winter months are not hindering such operations at the new federal building and a cement pavement is hoped for before very long.

The Regular Army officers in charge of arrangements for the have established headquarters in the property of Dr. H. L. Diehl, on Baltimore Street.

Properties Sold: Martin Winter has sold the following properties: A lot on Water Street to Mrs. Ida Miller; a lot on Water street to Mrs. Emma Biddle; a lot on North Washington street to Mrs. Clara Mumper; a lot improved with a two-story frame dwelling house on York street to Mrs. Mary Strickhouser; two lots on York street to Dr. Howard Stone-sifer of Littlestown; a lot on Hanover street to Mrs. Annie Ridinger; a lot on Fourth street to H. E. Nay; two lots corner Broadway and Mummashburg streets to W. F. Oswald; thirteen lots on Fourth, Fifth and Sixth streets to Messrs. Nay and McDonald. Messrs. Nay and McDonald are the gentlemen who have been putting up concrete bridges on the Western Maryland for the past year and more. They are now erecting a storage building on Fourth street for their machinery when not in use.

New Proprietor: John Mumper has returned with his family to Gettysburg from Everett after an absence of fifteen years to take charge of the photograph gallery on Baltimore street which he has purchased from his brother, Clyde Mumper. The latter will remain with him and assist in conducting the business. Mr. John Mumper has been the proprietor of a similar establishment in Everett since 1905.

No Natural Ice: Natural ice will in all probability be a scarcity next summer if the present open weather remains and makers of artificial ice will reap a harvest by the demand which will arise for their product. In the Northern states, where they usually begin cutting ice about January 5, no ice at all has been cut this year, and from present indications it will be several weeks or more before any is cut. No ice has been cut in Gettysburg this year and the big dam at Laurel has not yet frozen over.

Today's Talk

EDUCATION

Every year thousands of young men and women are turned out of their schools and colleges — with an education, so-called.

Happy those men or women who have learned one thing at that school of theirs — that they are never completely educated.

A college education has failed miserably in its purpose if it has failed to teach the young man or woman that life alone is the greatest text book, and that he or she alone must become master in the solving of its problems as they appear.

A school education merely polishes the tools of one's natural equipment — and then it is the duty and privilege of the scholar to keep those tools in proper shape, ready for any emergency that may arise. And the better we apply our knowledge and learning, the surer we are to be handed new and better equipment by life itself.

The English derivation of the word "education" is to lead out or to draw out, so that education should lead, or draw out, the best that a human being has latent within him. And experience, as well, should add to all that a man is — increasing his education.

Probably the greatest thing that education does is to increase individual control, making a man the sure master of himself, as a captain is of the great ship which he guides so confidently through the big seas and past powerful and howling storms.

Great knowledge alone never made an educated man or woman.

Some of the finest educated people I have ever known never walked inside the walls of a college. There is much in that old adage that "a little knowledge is a dangerous thing!" But education isn't necessarily knowledge at all. It may be merely its application — unconsciously.

Many people become very learned simply by intelligently using their eyes — seeing things that the crowd misses.

Just Folks

THE LIVING DEAD
The living dead are those who stay
Full satisfied with yesterday.

Against the youth's desire to go,
They are the ones who counsel
"no."

They live—that is they breathe and walk
And shake their heads the while they talk.

They eat and sleep and wake, but they
Have no belief in life today!

No faith in youth! No trust in time!
No hope that men will higher climb!

The living dead are those who lie
Beneath the graves of things gone by.

64 INVITATION

HARRISBURG (AP) — Gov. Scranton, a Republican, has called on members of both major political parties to hold their 1964 national conventions in Philadelphia.

LEGISLATURE SKIRMISHES AS IT WAITS

HARRISBURG (AP) — Gov. Scranton's legislative program was ready today for presentation to a joint session of the House and Senate.

The governor and his aides worked late Monday putting the finishing touches on the blueprint for the chief executive's administration.

House and Senate lawmakers agreed to join at 2 p.m. to hear the governor's proposals.

The governor's address was the high point of the day's legislative docket.

SKIRMISH MONDAY

Lawmakers in both houses skirmished Monday, pending presentation of the key legislative plan.

In the Senate, Democrats agreed to put up the necessary votes for confirmation of John K. Tabor, Pittsburgh, as secretary of commerce, and Richard M. Hornbeck, also of Pittsburgh, as secretary of property and supplies.

The agreement cleared the way for confirmation of the two cabinet members.

DEBATE DEFICIT

The Democrats continued, however, to hold up confirmation of the appointment of E. Wilson Purdy, St. Petersburg, Fla., as state police commissioner, and H. Beecher Charnbury, State College, as secretary of mines.

Sen. Charles R. Weiner, Democratic floor leader, said he expected Purdy and Charnbury to be confirmed next week.

In the House, a debate flared between Democrats and Republicans over whether the state will have a surplus or a deficit at the end of the current fiscal year, June 30.

Democrats criticized Scranton for saying last Friday that the state faced a $32 million deficit.

Frances Cardinal Spellman left New York by plane for Europe with the quip he was making the trip so "I can read the New York newspapers."

The Roman Catholic archbishop of New York referred to the New York Times and New York Herald Tribune, whose overseas editions have not been affected by the strike and shutdown of the city's nine major dailies.

The cardinal said he will be in Rome two weeks to attend an inter-im meeting of the Ecumenical Council.

Sen. George Smathers, D-Fla., says the United States should recognize a Cuban government in exile and extend it foreign aid the same as it does to the Nationalist Chinese on Formosa.

He said that military supplies, such as fast boats, would enable a government in exile to prevent oil and other supplies from reaching Cuba.

"I believe they would be able to isolate Castro's Cuba," said Smathers in Miami.

Foreign Minister Subandrio of Indonesia told a student corps to be prepared for assignment anywhere, even to the jungle of Indonesian Borneo. The statement in a speech at Jakarta came as a Brunei rebel soldier in Manila predicted that Indonesia is ready to unleash a force of volunteers to revive the revolt in British Northern Borneo.

Pope John XXIII was given two small white lambs in Vatican City on the occasion of St. Agnes Day in a centuries-old tradition.

The wool of the two lambs, when they grow up, will be used to make the pallium, a circular band worn on the shoulders by the Pope, archbishops and patriarchs. The pallia are made by oblates of St. Frances of Rome.

Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei A. Gromyko will pay a three-day visit to Denmark in March, the Danish Foreign Ministry announced in Copenhagen.

U.S. Ambassador Walworth Barbour was received by Prime Minister David Ben-Gurion in Jerusalem for a lengthy discussion which was understood to be a continuation of last month's Florida talks between President Kennedy and Foreign Minister Golda Meir on U.S. proposals to solve the Arab refugee problem.

Bill Schwarz, junior guard on Michigan State's basketball team, comes from Columbia City, Ind., but he was born in Transylvania, Romania.

DEATHS

HANOVER, Germany (AP) — Ernst Torgler, 69, former parliamentary leader of German Communists who was accused of plotting the Reichstag fire of 1933, died Saturday of a circulatory ailment. Torgler, who was acquitted of setting the fire, was expelled from the Communist party in 1935.

SOUTH BEND, Ind. (AP) — The Rev. Matthew J. Walsh, 80, president of the University of Notre Dame from 1922 to 1928, died Saturday. Father Walsh, who continued teaching history at Notre Dame until his retirement in 1947, was born in Chicago.

WINTER HAVEN, Fla. (AP) — George Brown Ayrcrig, 71, prominent in Florida citrus circles for 50 years, died Saturday. Ayrcrig came to Winter Haven in 1913 and became one of the leading citrus grovers and packing house executives in Florida. He was born in Paterson, N.J.

TAYLORVILLE, Ill. (AP) — Maude C. Reed, 93, publisher of the Taylorville Breeze-Courier, died Saturday. Mrs. Reed became publisher of the daily newspaper in 1941 after the death of her husband, Frank who had been publisher since 1894.

Tired Strike Negotiators Resume Today

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Weary negotiators, short on optimism and sleep, resumed bargaining in the city's eight-day-old transit strike today amid mediators' reports no break was in the offing.

"I would not say that we have made the kind of progress that would justify our saying that we now see a settlement in the near future," said state mediator Ray Wright as talks broke up Monday night.

The strike has idled 5,600 members of Transport Workers Local 234 and left half a million riders of buses, trolleys and subways without their normal mode of travel.

Bargaining continued intermittently Monday with a high point coming late in the afternoon when Robert Stier, president of the Philadelphia Transportation Co., announced the PTC had petitioned the state for immediate approval of a fare increase.

The petition was taken under advisement by the state Public Utility Commission with a promise it would get prompt attention. Stier declined to elaborate on the petition. But he has said throughout the week that the company cannot meet the union's demands for wage increases and continuation of a no-layoff clause without some increase in fares.

AWAIT OK ON DOCK ACCORD

NEW YORK (AP) — Members of the 145-company New York Shipping Association meet today to act on the dock strike settlement terms proposed by a presidential mediation board.

Sen. Wayne Morse, D-Ore., chairman of the board, predicted Monday that the shipping industry from Norfolk, Va., north to Maine will join the longshoremen's union in accepting the peace formula worked out by the board.

Still to be worked out is a plan to settle the strike in ports from Norfolk to Texas.

Morse made his prediction to newsmen in Washington after he reported to President Kennedy on the board's work since Kennedy appointed it last Wednesday.

Kennedy urged the board to continue efforts to get an immediate settlement of the strike of 60,000 longshoremen that has paralyzed shipping on the Atlantic and Gulf coasts for a month.

Morse said the main problem remaining is whether industry and union representatives on the South Atlantic and Gulf coasts will go along with the proposals for settlement in North Atlantic ports.

A Lovelier You

By MARY SUE MILLER

THE PUCKERED LIP. A lovely writes: My lipline is becoming lined. Little puckers have formed across the upper lip. The effect is aging beyond my years. And because of the grooving, the most careful application of lipstick looks ragged. What can be done to remedy the situation?

The Answer: Long before time, many women are plagued by "pucker" lines. And that's exactly what they are, as their source is in the habit of pursing the lips. Naturally habit correction is the first step to improvement—whether or not the lines are premature.

Special treatments aid and abet the cause. A very good one employs velvety cream mask and moisture oil. You apply the oil to a cleansed face—the entire face; allow it to remain on for a few minutes and then tissue it off.

Next spread on the mask in a thin film, and immediately flatten the upper lip by placing the fingertips at the corners of the mouth. Hold for two minutes until the mask firms. Now apply a second film of mask just along the upper lip and let dry for 20 minutes. Used thus the mask helps to draw the lip smooth.

For maximum results, repeat the treatment every night for two weeks. Thereafter an occasional treatment should hold the line if, of course, you make an effort not to purse the lips. As laginapae, your entire complexion will appear clearer, fresher and firmer.

BABE STRANGLES

MEYERSDALE, Pa. (AP) — Five-month-old David J. Donley was found dead in a crib at his home in this Somerset County town Monday. Coroner Robert H. Halverson said the infant strangled when his head slipped between the crib rungs.

Drain thawed frozen blueberries and add them to a pancake recipe for a winter breakfast. At least two-thirds cup of the berries will be needed for a recipe that calls for two cups of flour.

MARRIED MAN ADMITS DEATH ON BLIND DATE

ERIE, Pa. (AP) — A 21-year-old married machinist has admitted the slaying of a 20-year-old Edinboro State College co-ed while on a blind date, state police said.

Police said Daniel Roy Biebighauser of Erie confessed to the murder of Mary Lynn Crotty, 20, of suburban Lawrence Park, after intensive questioning Monday.

Police said there was a sex motive but declined to elaborate.

Biebighauser told police he killed the girl early Sunday in Harborcreek Twp., just east of Erie, then took the body to a spot in rural Millers Creek Twp., about five miles south of Erie.

BOTH MARRIED

Police found the frozen body Monday evening. Erie County coroner Merle Wood said the girl had been stabbed 10 times and possibly strangled. He ordered an autopsy.

The girl had been reported missing Sunday afternoon by her father, who told police she had been on a double date Saturday night with a classmate, Paulette Marie Cywinski, 20, of suburban Wattsburg.

Miss Cywinski told police she arranged the double date with Biebighauser and John Floyd Harvey, 22, of Erie, who worked with Biebighauser at the R. M. Kerry Co. She said she was unaware that both men were married.

FLOOD FAVORS AMENDED PLAN

TAIPEI, Formosa (AP) — Rep. Daniel J. Flood, D-Pa., said Monday he favors revision of the Mutual Defense Treaty signed in 1954 between the United States and Nationalist China in order to enable the Chinese Nationalists to attack the Communist-held China mainland.

Flood, who arrived here Sunday for a five-day visit, made the statement in a speech before some 300 members of the Chinese Nationalist Legislative Yuan (Parliament) and the Control Yuan, this country's supreme watchdog body.

The treaty, he said, was concluded at a time when the Chinese Communists were at their height. But, he added, the situation has changed and the communists are in a decline.

"Time is now on our side," he declared.

Since Premier Khrushchev's retreat in Cuba and criticism of Moscow's policies by the Chinese Communists, he contended, the Soviet union would not help Mao Tse-tung if the Chinese Nationalists were to land on the mainland now.

Flood also attended a reception in his honor Monday.

BO BELINSKY IS SIGNED BY
LOS ANGELES

By MIKE RATHET
Associated Press Sports Writer

There are some who claim Bo Belinsky's best pitch is the one he makes off the field.

Belinsky, who ran into more trouble in his first season in major league baseball than Napoleon did at Waterloo, insists it's a screwball.

He says it without cracking a smile. Apparently he is going to get a chance to prove it one way or another during the 1963 season with the Los Angeles Angels, who signed him Tuesday with this guarded accolade from General Manager Fred Haney:

"UP TO HIM"

"He could become one of the game's fine pitchers. It's strictly up to him. He has great ability and if he concentrates on baseball, Bo can become a great asset to the club, to baseball and to himself."

Belinsky, who came to the majors more celebrated as a pool shark than a pitcher and for a time found it just as easy to put the ball in the strike zone as the side pocket, had a sensational rookie year in 1962.

He was fined $250 for after-hours shenanigans, was the subject of a $150,000 damage suit and was the center of a controversial trade which he eventually helped to kill. He also pitched a no-hitter and posted a 10-11 record.

POWER AGREES
While Belinsky was accepting terms, Minnesota first baseman Vic Power chose an unusual moment to agree to his Twins' President Cal Griffith mentioned in his talk at a breakfast club meeting that Power had not yet signed. Power promptly interrupted and said "I accept."

Dick Donovan, Cleveland's first 20-game winner in six years, came to terms with the Indians while the Los Angeles Dodgers added six pitchers—Ron Perranoski, Ed Roebuck, Joe Moeller, Phil Ortego, Bob Miller and Bill Singer.

POWELL WON'T
PREDICT ROUND

PITTSBURGH (AP)—Charley Powell says he won't predict the outcome of his heavyweight fight with unbeaten Cassius Clay at the Civic Arena next Thursday.

But he added Monday at a news luncheon:

"It can end as soon as I land a punch."

Powell said he didn't come all the way to Pittsburgh from his home on the West Coast just for a pay day.

"I came back here to win a fight," the burly ex-pro football player said.

Powell said Clay's prediction of winning the fight by a knockout in the fifth round of the scheduled ten-round "doesn't mean anything."

"That's just a figure of speech," Powell said. "I could say the same thing."

Jim Taylor Ailment
Labelled Hepatitis

BATON ROUGE, La. (AP)—A weak Jim Taylor, star fullback of the National Football League champion Green Bay Packers, rests at home today after learning he suffers from hepatitis.

Taylor returned home Monday after his attending physician confirmed the virus liver affliction was causing loss of weight.

The physician reported, however, that the 211-pound former Louisiana State star was showing excellent powers of recuperation.

Barring complications, his doctor said, "it is anticipated he will be able to resume normal activities in the not too distant future."

MAURY WILLS
HINTS AT MORE
BASE STEALING

By MURRAY ROSE
ROCHESTER, N.Y. (AP)—Maury Wills said he was going to "play it by ear and see how it goes" next season but hinted National League pitchers could expect more of the same on the basepaths.

The fleet shortstop of the Los Angeles Dodgers, who stole a record 104 bases last year, accepted the S. Rae Hickok Professional Athlete of the Year award Monday night. He was presented with the $10,000 jeweled belt at the annual charity dinner of the Rochester Press-Radio Club.

"It wasn't too bad last year," said Wills. "My right thigh was plenty sore from sliding during the last three weeks. But it is all right now. If you are going to play this game, you have to go all out."

"If I started at the beginning with the record in mind last year, there is no telling how many bases I would have had. Late in the year our offense got to the point where I had to get on base, steal second and come home on a single by Jim Gilliam, Willie Davis or Tommy Davis."

"Before I knew it I had 70. That's when all the other people started to talk about the record. That got me thinking about it too."

"At the end of the season I was so close I could taste it. That go-go from the fans inspires a fellow, when you are at home and even more on the road."

The 5-foot-10, 157-pound Wills already had been named the National League's Most Valuable Player and The Associated Press's Athlete of the Year. In the Hickok voting, Wills received 56 firsts from the panel of 154 sports writers and sportscasters and a total of 231 points. Points were counted on the basis of 3-2-1 for first, second and third.

Arnold Palmer, the 1962 Masters and British Open golf champ, finished second with 41 firsts and 180 points.

WILT LOSING SCORING SPARK

NEW YORK (AP)—Things are getting rougher for Wilt (The Stilt) Chamberlain of the San Francisco Warriors in the National Basketball Association.

The perennial No. 1 league scorer suffered his worst week in his four-year NBA career when he scored only 117 points in four games last week. This is an average of 29.3 compared to his season average of 46.2 for 47 games which leads the league.

While his 46.2 average on 882 field goals and 406 foul shots for 2,170 points is far ahead of the 33.7 for runner-up, Elgin Baylor of Los Angeles, Chamberlain is off from his 50-point per game average of last year. And the most points the 7-foot-1 former Kansas All-American has made in one game this year is 73 points compared to his record 100 last season.

League statistics released today include games through Sunday.

Cause of the blaze was not determined.

RAMBLERS OF LOYOLA WIN
OVER OHIO U.

By JIM HACKLEMAN
Associated Press Sports Writer

Note to Loyola of Chicago's future basketball opposition: If you are waiting for Rambler Coach George Ireland to run thin in the talent department, don't hold your breath.

The fast-moving Ramblers, ranked second in the nation and the country's highest-scoring major college team, have a lot going for them—and that includes youth.

Jerry Harkness is the only senior on Loyola's unbeaten powerhouse. The four other starters are juniors—John Egan, Les Hunter, Vic Rouse and Ron Miller. There is a competent crop of sophomores in reserve, headed by Billy Smith.

Harkness and his junior partners carried Loyola to its 17th season victory Monday night, winning a reasonably tough one at Ohio University 80-72.

In other games on the abbreviated schedule—Loyola squeaked by Michigan State 60-59 in the Big Ten, Notre Dame overpowered Purdue 96-86, and Georgia whipped Seton 99-80.

The youthful Ramblers, who clicked last season for a 22-4 record and third place in the National Invitation Tournament, overcame Ohio University with their featured strong point—all-around firepower. Harkness led with 20 points, Rouse added 17, Egan 16, Hunter 13 and Miller 12. For the season, Loyola is averaging 98 points per game.

OUTSTANDING
TV PROGRAMS
CITED AS ART

By CYNTHIA LOWRY
AP Television-Radio Writer

NEW YORK (AP)—Television has been described—and it is perhaps a perfect description—as "this marvelous, exciting, depressing, promising, wonderful, deplorable miracle."

And now, whatever you may think about "Beverly Hillsbillies" and "Liberace in living color, television is an art form—well, sometimes, anyway."

The Museum of Modern Art in New York City starting next month will feature screenings of some 50 programs culled from 13 busy seasons of network broadcasts (1948-1961).

THOSE CHOSEN
Among the programs selected by a large committee of experts are a 1949 Studio One, "The Storm," a half-hour "Kukla, Fran and Ollie" kinescoped the same year, and a 1950-51 "Garroby at Large" program.

Memorable dramatic shows include "Marty," "Requiem for a Heavyweight," "The Miracle Worker," "Little Moon of Alban," and "The Taming of the Shrew."

Selected also were a Mike Wallace interview with Philip Wylie, Edward R. Murrow's program on Sen. Joseph McCarthy, and McCarthy's show on Murrow. Shown will be samples of television coverage of Queen Elizabeth's coronation and the 1960 political conventions.

Judged to be young classics in the variety area were the 1953 Ford Anniversary Show, the 1955 "Your Hit Parade," the 1957 special "Cinderella," and "Tonight with Belafonte" in 1959. There is also included an "Ernie Kovacs Show" of 1957 and a 1961 Red Skelton hour.

Other shows are the CBS "Harvest of Shame" program on migrant workers, ABC's "Yankee No. 8" about communism in Latin America, and NBC's "The Real West," narrated by Gary Cooper.

There are many others, of course. Meanwhile, the museum's working list for the screenings is handy to throw at the people who still insist that, from its inception, all television has been a vast wasteland, an opiate, a conversation-killer—except sports, of course.

GARLAND NEXT SEASON
CBS has cast the die, and the Judy Garland weekly series will be moved next season into the network's Sunday night lineup to follow Ed Sullivan and opposite top-rated "Bonanza" on NBC. That means death to the Jack Webb anthology series and a change of time for "The Real McCoys" which, despite sluggish ratings, will have another season in the sun because of contractual commitments.

Recommended tonight: "Everybody Loves Sweeney," NBC, 9:30-10:30 (EST) Dick Powell Theater episode starring Mickey Rooney, Jack Benny Show, CBS, 9:30-10:30, Peter Lorre is the guest star.

COUNTY CAGE PROGRAM FOR TONIGHT THIN

A comparatively light scholastic basketball schedule is on tap tonight with Blue Mount League teams, including Gettysburg and Biglerville, being idle until the start of the second-half race on Friday.

All teams of the Adams-Franklin League will be in action tonight.

Fannett-Metal (2-5) plays at New Oxford (5-2); Littlestown (3-4) is at Berks (3-4) in a scrap for second place in the Eastern Division; Fairfield (1-6) at Sothland (6-1) St. Thomas (3-4) at Buchanan (5-2), and Greencastle (7-0) at Quincy (0-7).

Delone Catholic (2-2) face a rough opponent in Shamokin (4-0) on the latter's floor in a Central Penn Catholic League game. A victory for Shamokin would give it the first-half title.

Other CPCL games tonight include McDevitt (2-2) at Lebanon (0-3) and York (0-3) at Lancaster (3-1).

The lone junior high game to-night tonight will be the Gettysburg-Faust game at Gettysburg. Don Bickel's Braves are 2-1 for the season while Faust is 1-5.

BADGER GRID
STAR WILL SIGN
PRO CONTRACT

MADISON, Wis. (AP)—Wisconsin quarterback Ron VanderKelen, whose college career was a mystery to most professional football scouts until his Rose Bowl heroics, has a secret rendezvous set today for "somewhere in this country" to sign with the pro club of his choice.

Gene Calhoun, attorney and adviser to Wisconsin athletes, said Monday he could not divulge VanderKelen's choice. He said the 23-year-old Badger passer would go to the town of his choice and take part in a full-scale signing ceremony today.

His statement and other facts learned Monday indicated VanderKelen was en route to a National Football League city, possibly his hometown of Green Bay, Wis., where it is known the league champion Packers have made numerous overtures.

WAS OVERLOOKED
In New York, meanwhile, the New York Titans, who picked VanderKelen on the 21st round of the American Football League draft, admitted they had been unable to get in touch with the Wisconsin star although they were very much interested in his services.

VanderKelen was overlooked by most pro scouts as he finished out his college career and led Wisconsin to the Big Ten title. But they began to look him over after his pinpoint passing and shrewd play calling just missed giving the Badgers a Rose Bowl victory over Southern California.

AFL APPEALS TO HIGH COURT

ALEXANDRIA, Va. (AP)—The American Football League, a loser in a lower court, takes its $10.8-million anti-trust suit against the National Football League today to the U.S. Circuit Court of Appeals.

The AFL contends its long-established professional football rival used monopolistic powers in a conspiracy to prevent establishment of the new league three years ago.

Last June 12, U.S. District Judge Roszel C. Thomsen ruled that the AFL had not been damaged when the NFL expanded into Dallas and Minneapolis-St. Paul.

He rejected AFL arguments that the older loop had the power of monopoly on professional football in the United States.

The young league had claimed it suffered when the NFL put a team in Dallas, where the AFL already had located, and offered another to Minnesota—thus causing the group prepared to back an AFL team there to withdraw in favor of its older rival.

The NFL, during hearings that lasted from last Feb. 26 to April 26, contended it had been planning expansion for several years before the AFL was founded.

MONTREAL (AP)—Johnny Bucky, 27-year-old left wing for the last-place Boston Bruins, has taken over the National Hockey League scoring lead from New York's Andy Bathgate and is headed for the best season of his eight-year NHL career.

Bucky, who came to the Bruins in the 1957 trade that sent goalie Terry Sawchuk to Detroit, scored five points last week and now has a total of 46 on 20 goals and 26 assists, according to league statistics released today. Bucky's personal high in the NHL is 60 points.

Bathgate, who picked up only one assist last week, has 45 points.

PIRATES HAVE HIGH HOPES FOR
DON SCHWALL

PITTSBURGH (AP)—If marriage does to pitcher Don Schwall what it did to Bob Friend, the Pittsburgh Pirates will have at least one 20-game winner in 1963.

That was the somewhat facetious opinion of Pirate general manager Joe L. Brown Monday when he introduced his recently-acquired pitcher and future bridegroom to newsmen at a Forbes Field luncheon.

"Don is getting married to a local girl on Feb. 2," Brown said. "We hope marriage will be as good to him as it was to Bob Friend. The year after Friend got married (1957) he won 22 games."

Right now, it might be safe to say that Schwall's marriage has more of a chance to reach 20 years than he has of winning 20 games this season.

DUMPED BY SOX
For if the Boston Red Sox thought the 24-year-old right-hander could win 20 in '63, they undoubtedly would not have included him in the trade last November for slugging first baseman Dick Stuart.

Schwall was the American League's Rookie-of-the-Year in 1961 with a 15-7 record and 3.22 Earned Run average. But he plummeted to a 9-15 mark and 4.95 ERA last season, and the Sox dumped him.

"I'm sure I'll gain my '61 form though," the good-looking Schwall said in answer to a question. "I had a stomach disorder last winter, and it carried over through the spring. I was real weak for the first part of the season, but I came along strong in the latter half."

"And I never lost my stuff, it was just that my control was bad. But I worked out last month in the Arizona Instructional Camp, and I was well pleased with the way I pitched."

It was at the Arizona camp that Pittsburgh's new pitching coach, Don Osborne, discovered a flaw in Schwall's delivery. He thinks it was partly responsible for the Oklahoma's downfall last year.

"IRON MAN" OF BASKETBALL IN 1,000TH GAME

By TED MEIER
NEW YORK (AP)—There will be a touch of nostalgia for basketball fans at Madison Square Garden tonight.

On the same court where he used to star for New York University, 34-year-old Dolph Schayes of the Syracuse Nationals will become the first player in the history of the National Basketball Association to play in 1,000 regular season games.

The vehicle for this latest milestone in the career of professional basketball's Iron Man is the first game of an NBA doubleheader pitting Syracuse against St. Louis. Boston plays New York in the second game. In another game to-night Detroit is at San Francisco.

DETROIT LOSES
Detroit opened its West Coast trip Monday night by losing to Los Angeles 124-94 as the Lakers started a new winning streak after their 11-game string was snapped by Boston Sunday. It was the only NBA game scheduled Monday.

Since he joined Syracuse 15 years ago after his graduation from NYU, Schayes has become synonymous with durability in the tough pro league. Actually he has played in 1,109 NBA games, including 999 regular season games, 98 playoff games and 12 All-Star games.

Old No. 4, the number Schayes wears on his jersey, set an NBA record last year of playing in 706 consecutive games before a fractured cheek bone temporarily put him on the bench. Every time he scores a point or grabs a rebound he breaks his own all-time NBA record.

Going into tonight's game, Schayes has scored 18,771 regular season points on 5,970 field goals and 6,831 fouls, an average of roughly 19 points per game.

Avert Strike Of Port Boilermakers

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Commissioner John R. Murray of the Federal Mediation and Conciliation Service, announced today a settlement averting a threatened strike by boilermakers in the port of Philadelphia.

The commissioner said the agreement on a two-year contract prevented a walkout by some 250 members of Local 329 of the International Boilermakers Union. The men repair ships in the port of Philadelphia.

Murray said the agreement also provides for the withdrawal of a $100,000 damage suit against the union by the Delaware Valley Ship Repair Association.

Terms of the agreement, reached last night, were not announced. Neither were present wage scales.

Eshleman Submits

HARRISBURG (AP)—An amendment to Pennsylvania's Bible reading law, placing daily Bible recitations in the schools on an optional basis, was submitted to the House Monday by Chairman Edwin D. Eshleman of the Education Committee.

Two other Lancaster County Republicans, Reps. Baker Royer and Eugene S. Rutherford, and Rep. Clyde R. Dengler, R-Delaware, co-sponsored the measure.

It was referred to Eshleman's committee for further action.

Husband Kills Mother Of Three

WILLOW GROVE, Pa. (AP)—Mrs. Sylvia Dieter, 34-year-old mother of three sons, was shot and killed in her home here today.

Police said her husband jokingly pointed a revolver at her and pulled the trigger while she was sitting on a day bed in the living room of their first-floor apartment. Her youngest son, John Paul, 6, was lying by her side.

The husband, Richard, 36, was arrested on a homicide charge by Abington Township police.

The other children, Douglas Lane 11, and Richard Karl, 12, were sleeping in another room of the four-room apartment at the time of the shooting. Police said it happened after Dieter, employed by the Philadelphia Inquirer as a printer, returned home at 4:15 a.m.

9 EDUCATION BILLS
HARRISBURG (AP)—Senators introduced Monday night nine education bills covering such subjects as community colleges, scholarship tax exemptions, increase in teacher salaries and school subsidies and civil service status for employees of the Department of Public Instruction.

Their fate is uncertain. None bears the stamp of the Scranton administration.

LYONS, Ga. (AP)—Al St. John, 70, veteran actor who was the comical Fuzzy Q. Jones of Western movies, died Monday of a heart attack in the arms of his wife, Flo-Bell Moore. St. John, who made his first movie in 1911, and his wife were to have appeared in a show in nearby Vidalia Monday night. He was born in Santa Ana, Calif.

NEW CHARGE FILED AGAINST AUGUST LIPPI

By DAVE LEHERR
LEWISBURG, Pa. (AP) — August J. Lippi, already convicted on one charge of corporate income tax evasion, was called into U.S. District Court today to face another, involving $105,000.

The 61-year-old Luzerne County labor leader is one of four men accused of conspiring to evade taxes assessed the Peeley and Avon Coal Companies in 1956 and 1957.

Co-defendants in the case are Lippi, the firms, Robert L. Dougherty, president of the two companies; and Leonard Stankiewicz and Frank Cardoni, former Lippi aides.

Specifically, the Peeley company is charged with evading $59,000 in corporate taxes, and Avon $46,000.

The trial represents another chapter in a series of tax evasion proceedings against Lippi which started last April.

Lippi and Mrs. Josephine Scian-dra, both of Exeter, were convicted then of conspiring to evade $80,445 in corporate taxes against the Knox Coal Co. in 1957.

Lippi, president of the United Mine Workers District One, and Mrs. Scian-dra were listed as stockholders of the now-defunct coal corporation.

Lippi also faces another trial later this year on charges of personal income tax evasion amounting to more than $67,000 for 1955, 1957 and 1958.

Dougherty also was indicted in the Knox case, but did not stand trial because of illness. He too is expected to stand trial later this year.

A fourth defendant, Louis Fabrizio of Yatesville, former Knox president, pleaded guilty to one count of the indictment and is still awaiting sentence.

ADENAUER AND DE GAULLE TO TALK AGAIN

By JOSEPH E. DYNAN

PARIS (AP) — West German Chancellor Konrad Adenauer and French President Charles de Gaulle faced Atlantic and European issues dividing them today after agreeing on a treaty of close diplomatic cooperation between their countries—traditional enemies.

Adenauer is under heavy pressure from his public to play a mediating role in the crisis which erupted last week when De Gaulle rejected the American plan for a NATO nuclear force and slammed the door on British membership in the European Common Market.

West Germany favors British membership in the Common Market and has endorsed the American project for a multinational nuclear NATO force. Adenauer was expected to press De Gaulle to modify his position at a meeting today.

BRITISH BITTER

British bitterness over De Gaulle's position welled up Monday night in a sharp speech by Prime Minister Harold Macmillan, warning the French president against trying to dictate the future of free Europe. Macmillan told a political rally in Liverpool that no country "in these days can stand entirely on its own. Alliances are essential to security."

De Gaulle and Adenauer agreed Monday on a treaty of close cooperation in diplomacy, defense and culture, open to other states of Europe, which they hope will repair their differences in foreign policy.

LIFTS COURT ORDER

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—A temporary restraining order barring Transport Workers Union Local 2042 from holding an all day membership meeting has been lifted by U.S. District Judge Joseph S. Lord.

Lord acted Monday to lift the order, handed down last week, when the Pennsylvania Railroad said such a meeting at its Paoli shop would halt work at the height of Philadelphia transit strike.

DISHONEST DIPLOMACY
Ex-Ambassador E. E. T. Smith Documents
Bureaucratic Bungling On Castro And Cuba

By JIM DAN HILL, Ph.D.
President, Wisconsin State College, Superior
IF EX-PRESIDENTE BATISTA, of Cuba, always loyal to American foreign policies, was such a despot that he had to be dumped to keep America respectable in the eyes of the world, why did America kiss Fidel Castro as his successor?

Was Batista that bad? Were there no other choices between Batista, the despot, and Castro the known worker in the Communist vineyard?

Ar the career diplomats in the State Department bureaucracy, who create American policy through day to day decisions, being honest with either the Latin Americans or the American people?

To curry favor with the Latin American leaders, they often apologetically wash their hands of the Monroe Doctrine as an outmoded concept. They give pious lip service to "nonintervention."

At the same time they were constantly intervening in Cuba by positive and negative actions. Moreover, there were interventions by "innuendo" that were just as lethal to the Batista regime as an overt landing of Marines would have been. Is this now happening elsewhere? Is this honest? Who is being fooled, other than many well meaning American citizens?

EARL E. T. SMITH raises these questions and offers some brutal answers in a new book, "The Fourth Floor" (Random House, $5).

Mr. Smith is in position to write from first hand knowledge and with uninhibited convictions. He witnessed the rise of Fidel Castro. He was American ambassador to Cuba at the time.

Moreover, Mr. Smith has no diplomatic career to protect. He is not a career diplomat. He has no obligations to careerist brethren in the Foreign Service Officer Corps — the tightest fraternal and protective association on the west Federal payrolls.

A the same time, Mr. Smith is no more obligated to the Democratic party than to the Republican. He has served in high assignments under both Presidents Roosevelt and Eisenhower.

In private life he is a corporate director, stock broker and member of the New York Stock Exchange; in other words, a professional, high level negotiator.

America's most successful chiefs of foreign missions have been noncareerists.

THE BOOK gets its name from the Fourth Floor of the State Department Building in Washington, D. C. It is there that the assistant secretary of state for inter-American affairs has his office, along with those of the chiefs of his various divisions such as Caribbean affairs, their deputies, assistants and sundry lesser subordinates — careerists all.

Within itself it is a little bureaucratic empire that appears to be responsible to no one until it becomes involved in such a mess that the Fifth Floor — officing the highest echelons — finds it necessary to bail them out by muddling through from where they are, rather than where they should have been, had they given a pragmatic top priority to U.S. welfare.

Thus it is that day to day decisions on the Fourth Floor create long range diplomatic policy with which even the President becomes stuck before he has knowledge of what is happening.

UNDER this system, chiefs of foreign missions become figureheads while the bureaucrats arrive at decisions, and encode their instructions to the field.

These decisions rest upon unidentified intelligence reports and are also blended with the transitory ideologies of the Fourth Floor, swivel chair diplomats. That their ideological preconceptions do not always best serve American diplomatic welfare disturbs Mr. Smith.

Careerists Roy R. Rubottom and William Weiland, key men on the Fourth Floor during the State Department's backing of Castro to oust Batista, appear to have been addicted to the idea that a hostile leftist in Cuba was to be preferred above a friendly rightist.

His actions also suggest a belief that revolutions are normal and generally healthy for Latin America — so long as a long entrenched, Latino president is being thrown out.

But the most tragic revelations are Mr. Smith's convincing testimony that there were choices other than either Batista or Castro.

But Careerists Rubottom, et al, gave Castro the backing for success right while they were pulling the rug from under Batista.

All the time they were mauling pious platitudes about Cuban self-determination and nonintervention.

Meanwhile, Secretary of State Dulles, the White House and even the Under Secretary of State were not being fully informed.

European affairs were absorbing their attention. A last minute effort to switch from Castro failed.

The book joins a growing mass of evidence that the American State Department and the diplomatic service should be completely overhauled. Billions are being spent on these bureaucratically arrived at policies without tangible benefit to the United States.

GOLDWATER SALUTE TO RAISE FUNDS

By JACK BELL

WASHINGTON (AP) — Republican colleagues are arranging a dinner salute to Sen. Barry Goldwater which they hope will produce $500,000 to help bail out financially strapped party committees.

No mere $100-a-plate affair, the Goldwater testimonial is expected to attract sizable subscriptions from party financial angels who applaud the Arizona senator's conservative views.

If it tends to implant the Goldwater image more firmly on the party, GOP liberals will not like that. But some of them conceded privately there isn't much they can do about it.

TO SUPPLANT RALLY

Presumably the dinner, presently scheduled for Feb. 28, will supplant the customary June congressional fund-raising rally at which former President Dwight Eisenhower has been the principal attraction in recent years.

Goldwater has retired from the post he has held for four years as chairman of the Republican Senatorial Campaign Committee.

In agreeing to permit himself to be lauded publicly for the contributions he has made toward getting Republican senators elected, Goldwater laid down some limits.

INVITE ROCKY

The first of these is that there mustn't be anything said about him as a potential candidate for the 1964 GOP presidential nomination. It will be all right, however, to remind the faithful that there is in the offing his likely candidacy for re-election in Arizona next year.

Primarily the dinner is planned for members of the Senate and House. But Goldwater has stipulated that Republican governors also must be invited, but not necessarily urged, to attend.

Whether New York Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller would feel called upon to join in the festivities remained problematical. Rockefeller, regarded as a leading possibility for the 1964 GOP presidential nomination, has a legislature on his hands.

Praise Scranton For Naming Negro

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Republican National Committee has praised Pennsylvania Gov. William Scranton for his appointment of a Negro to his cabinet.

William P. Young, a Pittsburgh Negro, is Pennsylvania's new secretary of labor and industry.

"The 100th year of freedom for the Negro in America has witnessed a greater fulfillment of the spirit and example of Lincoln by the Republican Party," said chairman William E. Miller in a statement Saturday.

He said that Scranton, by his act, has "attained a greater mark of progress for minorities in the administration of government."

AWAIT RETURN OF THREE BOYS

LANCASTER, Pa. (AP)—Three Lancaster County families awaited the return of their sons today from a sudden, week-long trip that took the lads as far as the Virgin Islands without their parents' knowledge.

David Erb, Sr., of nearby New Holland, went to Philadelphia Monday to pay for the boys' trip home. The youngsters had turned themselves in to police at St. Croix the day before and were told they had to stay until someone put up the plane fare back.

Erb said no punishment is planned for the three—his son, David, Jr., Jonathan Beaver of Bowmansville and Allen Glassman of Blue Ball.

"Just being caught down there without money is punishment enough," he said.

Erb said they had $900 from savings of the Beaver boy's mother.

3 PROBES OF TRAIN WRECK

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — The city, federal government and the Reading Railroad launched separate investigations today into Monday's center city train wreck that injured more than 260 persons.

The wreck occurred when a Reading special jammed with commuters rammed the rear of a local, caving in the front of the

BELL'S VIEWS ON COURT PLAN

PITTSBURGH (AP) — Creation of a statewide court administrator is necessary, says Chief Justice John C. Bell of the State Supreme Court.

However, the justice said in a letter to Allegheny County judges, he strongly favors court administrators in Philadelphia, Allegheny, Delaware and Montgomery counties.

Bell said the real reason behind a proposed statewide administrator "no matter how this may be sugar-coated, is that... such an administrator would become an absolute czar over the judges

County officials.

HOLD STORMY SESSION ON WELFARE PLAN

HARRISBURG, Pa. (AP) — A hearing into a proposal to coordinate the state welfare services under county administration opens in Harrisburg today after a stormy session in Pittsburgh.

Witnesses expressed mixed reaction before the State and Local Welfare Commission Monday.

Many said the proposal to create county departments of public welfare would result in a better relationship between the state and local community. But they were doubtful the plan would help the counties.

Elmer Tropman, executive director of the Allegheny County Health and Welfare Association, said he favors de-centralization of administration.

But he added that a better way to achieve this might be "through a state program administered through regional or local offices with provision for local advisory committees and financial participation."

Tropman also criticized the financing of the proposed program whereby each county makes a minimum contribution based on property values with the state contributing matching funds scaled to need.

"Fayette County—certainly one of the most distressed areas in the state—would be required to pay more than it is currently spending," he said, "while other counties which are better able to pay would be asked for less."

WIETECH RETIRES

NEW YORK (AP) — Ray Wietcha, the New York Giants' durable center, is retiring from National Football League play after 10 seasons.

The 33-year-old former Northwestern star will become offensive line coach for the Los Angeles Rams under his ex-teammate, Harland Svare.

PAWLING, N.Y. (AP)—Robert Cluett III, 64, a former member of the board of governors of the New York Stock Exchange, died Friday, Cluett, who was born in Troy, N.Y., was chairman of the Council of the School of General Studies at Columbia University.

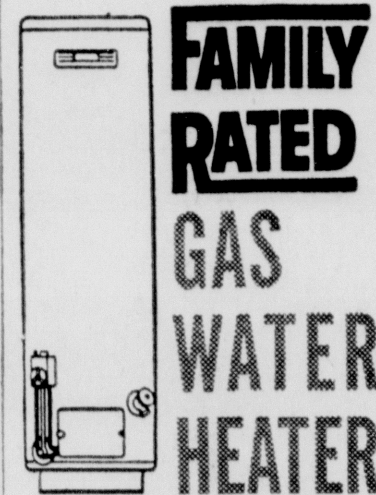

throughout the state."

"I am informed that another attempt will be made to have the Legislature enact a state-wide court administrator bill," Justice Bell said in the letter disclosed Monday.

"I would appreciate your views on this subject in order that I may know whether in opposing such enactment I am expressing the wishes of a large majority of the judiciary of Pennsylvania or only my own views," he said.
